Jeffrey Alexander Introduces New Larkin and Spencer Collections

Jeffrey Alexander's Larkin Collection

[BOSSIER CITY, LOUISIANA – April 12, 2023] – Jeffrey Alexander[®] by Hardware Resources announces the release of two new decorative hardware collections Larkin and Spencer. Larkin provides an edgy, undiluted style by pairing a classic bar with a bold square foot in solid and mixed finishes, while Spencer creates a captivatingly iconic look by combining a crystal-clear acrylic bar with the same daring foot in top trending finishes.

“The Larkin and Spencer collections update the classic bar pull style with mixed materials that provide a modern, edgy feel,” said Stephanie Lowe Mersky, product manager for Jeffrey Alexander decorative hardware. “These collections offer designers an excellent option to give clients a daring touch that coordinates with both transitional and traditional style.”

The Larkin collection offers a t-knob, five standard pull lengths and two appliance handle lengths. The Spencer collection offers a t-knob and three pull lengths. Both collections are included in the Jeffrey Alexander designer sample program. Showroom display boards are also available for each collection.
